Example content from Issue #1

"I can remember when Hey Duggee first aired. I came in to work the next day and said to my Editor "Can we get Hey Duggee in our magazine?" Right from the start it engaged both myself as a parent and my young son, and I really wanted to work on it.

In my mind, as a designer and illustrator, everything about Hey Duggee is perfect. The stories, the humour, the character design, dialogue and animation, all come together to make Hey Duggee a continual breath of fresh air.

So to say I'm excited to be finally working on a stand alone title is a little of an understatement!"

Shane Jones, Editor, Fun To Learn Hey Duggee

"Redan Publishing create exceptional titles for children, focused on quality storytelling and relevance within the early learning framework but with a huge emphasis on fun and interactivity. We are thrilled to be partnering with them on Fun to Learn Hey Duggee"
